

US Army Corps
Of Engineers®

Nashville District
P.O. Box 1070
Nashville, TN 37202-1070
(615) 736-7161

Lieutenant Colonel Steven J. Roemhildt

District Engineer

Biography

Lieutenant Colonel Steven Roemhildt is a native of southern Minnesota and a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, N.Y. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Civil Engineering and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Corps of Engineers in 1987.

Lt. Col. Roemhildt took command of the Nashville District July 22, 2005. As the District Engineer, Lt. Col. Roemhildt is responsible for directing all the water resource activities of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers throughout the Cumberland River Basin, and navigation and regulatory matters in the Tennessee River Basin, an area of more than 59,000 square miles. The Nashville District covers parts of seven states and employs more than 730 federal workers in 60 offices, branches and sections.

Lt. Col. Roemhildt earned a Masters of Science degree in Engineering Management from the University of Alaska – Anchorage and is a licensed professional engineer in the State of Alaska. He is a graduate of the Engineering Officer Basic Course, the Infantry Officer Advanced Course and the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College.

Lt. Col. Roemhildt has served in a variety of assignments in the combat engineers including: platoon leader and executive officer, 23rd Engineer Battalion in Germany; training officer, 7th Infantry Division at Fort Ord, Calif.; company commander, 14th Engineer Battalion at Fort Lewis, Wash.; operations officer, 555th Engineer Group at Fort Lewis, Wash.; and with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers including: project engineer & assistant resident engineer – Alaska District; NATO project officer, European District; and deputy district engineer, Pittsburg District. He has served in installation management assignments as the program manager, 8th Army in Korea; facility engineer, Task Force Sinai of the Multinational Forces and Observers in Egypt; and his most recent assignment as director of public works, Yongsan, South Korea. He has deployed in support of Operation Desert Shield/Storm and Operation Joint Endeavor.

Lt. Col. Roemhildt has a younger brother who is a Lieutenant Commander in the U.S. Navy. He wears the parachutist badge, sapper tab, ranger tab, the Meritorious Service Medal and 5 overseas service ribbons.